Before sending the package, make sure that 14 days have not passed since you received the package. Returns after 14 days will not be accepted.

The returned product cannot be damaged, dirty, and must not show any signs of use. It must have all accessories and external packaging. When sending it back, secure it in such a way that it does not get damaged during transport. If the product is damaged or lacks any of the components included, the return will not be accepted, and the package will be sent back at your expense.

The refund will be made within 14 days in the same form as the order was paid or to the account indicated in the form. If you would like to exchange the product, proceed as in the case of a return, but inform us in the form below which product you would like to receive in exchange. The cost of exchange is equivalent to the cost of shipping again.

REMEMBER!

THE RETURNED PRODUCT MUST BE FIT FOR RE-SALE, SO SEND IT BACK IN THE WAY YOU WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE IT.
